

Denver Dietetic Association (DDA) Button Project

Below are the final button designs for the DDA Button Project. Members will wear these buttons while volunteering on behalf of the organization at public events. Ideally, these would be conversation starters, inviting the public to engage with the volunteer and learn about nutrition.

